

TO BEAT INCOME TAX HIS PURPOSE

Aldrich Frankly Admits
Reason He Supports a Corporation Tax.

ALSO UNCLE SAM NEEDS THE MONEY

Special Taxes Occupy the Senate Most of the Hot Day.

Washington, June 29.—At half past two Senator Aldrich called up the Bailey income tax amendment as the prevailing question under the agreement to take up the general subject upon the disposal of schedules. Mr. Lodge offered a countervailing tax as an amendment. Mr. Aldrich then presented the corporation tax as a substitute for Mr. Lodge's provision. This proceeding cuts out the possibility of other amendments and insures the first vote on the corporation tax. Senator Flint opened the debate with a speech explaining and in support of the corporation tax provision.

THE DAY IN THE SENATE.

Washington, June 29.—Many people defied the hot weather and went to the capitol today to see started the first senatorial battle for an income tax. The heat if possible was even more intolerable than that of yesterday. Buckets of lemonade in clock rooms received frequent visits. For the first time the pages were attired in childish shirt waists and they presented each senator with a palm leaf fan as he entered.

The day's session began with a demand by Senator Beveridge for a roll call in response to which 35 senators answered.

The Very Busy B's

Messrs. Aldrich, Bailey, Borah, Brown, Beveridge and Owen were on their feet at the first opportunity. Being the first recognition from the chair, Senator Brown, endeavored to obtain unanimous consent to take up the resolution reported by the finance committee for the submission of an income tax amendment to the constitution to the several states. Demurring to this campaign Senator Bailey pointed out that such a course would be in contravention of an unanimous consent previously recorded for the consideration of his income tax amendment.

Remarking that he thought it would be well at once to get out of the way the question of the constitutionality of the income tax, Senator Brown did not press his request and no action was taken to interfere with the measure agreed on for disposing of the Bailey amendment.

Bar the Amendments.

To more clearly map out the campaign entered upon, Senator Aldrich said that the finance committee had determined that the offering of amendments to the schedules of the bill while in the committee of the whole should not continue further at this time as they could be brought forth by senators after the bill reached the senate in a parliamentary sense. To give force to that purpose he said he would move to lay on the table any other amendments that might be offered at this time.

All this had been mere preliminary detail and when the tariff bill was taken up the income tax question was put aside to enable Senator Tillman to present his amendment for a duty on tea with the purpose in view of

WEALTHY CONSCIOUS OF THEIR OWN MISDOING

Italian Historian Tells Why
American Plutocrats Do Not Fight Back.

Paris, June 29.—Signor Guglielmo Ferrar, the Italian historian who visited the United States last year, continues in the Figaro today his comments on the anti-plutocratic movement in America. He calls attention again to the lack of organized resistance on the part of the rich, which he explains by a general recognition on their part that the movement has been provoked by real abuses which must be corrected. Many wealthy people sympathize with this movement openly and some sons of rich men have thrown themselves into the fight. This fact the writer considers to be another proof of idealism in America, where the basis of everything is the theoretical rule of the majority. The infiltration of anti-plutocratic allies to the interests of the rich, has realized that it could not adopt too hostile an attitude without provoking revolt. Signor Ferrar is of the opinion that the picture painted by Maxim Gorky and others of the vicious rich American oligarchy cringing before the masses, is erroneous, and says the belief is held in some quarters in Europe that the masses in America are organizing a revolution to despoil the wealthy. Signor Ferrar in promising the final installment of his articles explains the grounds for his conviction that the feeble defense which the rich men of America are making against the anti-plutocratic movement will not result in a social catastrophe.

GREAT STRIKE IN PITTSBURG ENDED

War of Traction Owners and Men Ceases as Suddenly as Begun.

EACH SIDE MADE ITS CONCESSIONS

Mayor Brought the Belligerents Together and an Agreement Followed.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 29.—With rousing cheers from both street car men and hundreds of Pittsburgers cars were run out of the various barns of the Pittsburg Railway company at 5 a. m. today. Three hours later every division was in full operation and schedules being maintained.

The ending of the car strike was as sudden as the beginning.

While the trouble was adjusted by Mayor Magee with a compromise agreement favorable to the men, concessions were granted by the union and the company.

Excepting one point, which will be arbitrated later, every difference was settled definitely at the conference held in the mayor's office at 10:30 last night.

Basis of Settlement.

Following is the basis of settlement: That the number of "short runs" shall be reduced 50 per cent.

The men withdrew their objections to emergency runs.

That Sunday runs shall not be longer than the week-day schedules.

That Motorman Ashford, discharged on charges of drinking while in uniform, shall be reinstated pending arbitration.

That Conductor Halboth, suspended on charges of refusal to help remove an obstruction to traffic, be paid in full for the time of his suspension.

That Conductor McGibbony, who lost seniority, be restored.

With the expectation of walking to town or riding in a wagon, thousands of Pittsburgers were astir early today. Owing to the lateness of the hour last night it was not generally known that the strike had been settled.

MORE DYNAMITE IN EVANSVILLE

Evansville, Ind., June 29.—Last night a street car ran over a large stick of green dynamite. It failed to explode.

The police this morning made an effort to ascertain its potency. When it went off the explosion was terrific and experts said that it was sufficient to have blown the car, with the motor-man and conductor, into atoms. There were no passengers on the car when it ran over the dynamite.

TILLMAN TEA BABY IS GIVEN GOLD COMFORT

Infant Industry of South Carolina Will Not Get Any Protection.

Washington, June 29.—Senator Tillman's amendment to the tariff bill providing for a duty of ten cents per pound on tea was defeated this afternoon by a vote of 18 to 55.

Senator Tillman lost no time in renewing his effort to have a duty placed on tea in the interest of the tea grown in South Carolina. This being the last of the amendments to the schedules to be proposed while the tariff bill is before the senate in committee of the whole, there was much interest in its progress and much desire to force it to a conclusion. Everybody was anxious to vote, but the South Carolina senator was full of his subject and wanted to speak. He told of the superior quality of the American grown tea, of the enormous profits made in the imported article and of the possibilities in case the domestic industry was properly fostered.

Saw a Great Future for Tea.

In reply to a question he declared that he believed that with the duty he asked for the south would not only be able to supply the entire American market, but would eventually export a large quantity of the leaves.

Senator Dixon suggested a bounty as a means of nurturing the infant tea industry and he was strongly supported in making that suggestion by Senator Smith, of Michigan, who declared that a bounty would be a practical method of obtaining the result desired, although he knew of no instance in which the protective tariff principle would more properly be set in operation. Mr. Tillman responded that he did not propose to be caught in advocating a bounty. He would not accept a bounty, he said, if a dollar a pound was offered. He was not seeking any selfish advantage for South Carolina, but wanted to benefit the entire country.

Senator Shively insisted that it was fallacy to claim that the development of the tea growing industry in this country would be served by such a duty and was opposed to it.

PONTIAC CAR OFF TRACK.

For an hour this morning, Pontiac car No. 112 was off the track at the corner of Pontiac and Reed streets, but as there are only two more squares on that end of the line, traffic was not delayed in the least. The accident resulted from spreading of the rails.

UNWRITTEN LAW IS CRAZY WITH HEAT, HELD GOOD IN CHICAGO

Man Who Slew Betrayer of His Sister is Sent Forth Free.

Chicago, June 29.—The "unwritten law" was sustained today by a jury in Judge Kersten's court, which freed Michael Pascallano, charged with the murder of Frank Sereno, as a result, it is alleged, of the latter's betrayal of Pascallano's sister. The defendant's sister, Mrs. Josephine Fosso, as a bride of only a week, when it is charged, Sereno persuaded her to leave her husband. According to Pascallano's defense, Sereno took her to New York and placed her amid questionable surroundings. The brother followed and brought both back to Chicago, Sereno having promised, it is said, to marry Mrs. Fosso after a divorce had been secured.

When the party left the train here it is charged that Sereno declared he would have no more to do with the girl. The shooting followed.

ATTACK MADE ON SCOTT'S VICTIM

Defense Offers Evidence To Show Thornton Was Dangerous.

FATHER FOLLOWS BEYOND THE TOMB

Witness From Toledo Tells of Daughter Wronged by Man Now Dead.

[Special Correspondence.]
Columbia City, Ind., June 29.—The efforts of the defense in the trial of John B. Scott for the murder of Walter Thornton at Fort Wayne last January have been directed since yesterday afternoon toward showing that the victim of the saloon row was of a quarrelsome disposition and generally recognized among his acquaintances as a dangerous man to deal with.

This line of evidence was first begun with the first witness, but the state put in an objection to its introduction at that time and the witnesses then present were examined in the absence of the jury and their testimony read during today.

That the dispute that finally cost the life of one of the members of the supper party in the Scott living room started before the men returned to the saloon where the tragedy was enacted was proven by the wife of the accused who took the stand just before the noon adjournment and said that there were some differences about the payment for a round of drinks while the party was eating.

Ruined Munch's Daughter.

The first witness of the morning caused somewhat of a sensation when he testified he had voluntarily come all the way from Toledo to testify for Scott in order to get even with Thornton, at whose door he laid the ruin of his young daughter. He testified that Thornton had worked for him for six months and that he was quarrelsome and dangerous and admitted that he was animated by personal feeling against the deceased.

He told the attorneys for the state that the daughter whose honor had been sacrificed had been placed in a convent and is there now and that he entertained a bitter feeling against her seducer.

Welch Had Good Hotel.

John Welch, proprietor of the Welch hotel on lower Summit street in Toledo, was another witness who said he had known Thornton for a long time and said that his reputation for peace and quietude was bad in the vicinity in which he was known there.

The state adduced on cross-examination that he had had a personal difficulty with Thornton and tried to prove that his opinion of the reputation of the victim of the crime was based entirely upon his personal observation. Welch said that although his hotel is located in a bad district in Toledo that keeps a respectable place that is frequented by sailors and laborers.

Charles Ellison said that he met

Thornton on the street in front of the Scott saloon about 5 o'clock in the afternoon before the shooting and that he asked him if he had obtained any work. Thornton answered that he had not and added when asked why he did not ask Scott for a job that he wanted to get even with him.

There was an attempt to show that Thornton meant he owed Scott some money and wanted to pay him and that the remark was not prompted by ill-feeling.

Testimony Read.

During the forenoon the testimony of Sheriff Anthony George, of Grant county; Captain Ben Phillips, of the Marion police department; Mayor James Lucas and Marshal Worley, of Hartford City, was read to the jury.

All of these men testified that they had known Thornton during his life and that his reputation for peace was bad. These men were in court yesterday and their evidence was taken so that they would not be compelled to remain over night or return today.

completing the schedules before taking up the tax question. Special Taxes to the Front.

While the question of tax remained before the senate for a long time it was impossible to keep the income tax and the corporation tax question in the back ground. They were referred to more than once, and at one time so pointedly by Senator Clay as to bring out a more interesting statement from Senator Aldrich, who, as chairman of the finance committee, presented the corporation tax amendment.

Senators Bailey and Clay were prodigal the chairman of the finance committee and appeared especially anxious to show whether he would revise the tariff schedules downward if the income tax amendment should be adopted, in order to lower the revenue from customs to an extent equal to that which would be raised by the income tax. It was in response to a direct question from Mr. Clay that Mr. Aldrich said bluntly, "I shall vote for the corporation tax as a means of defeating the income tax."

He added: "I shall be perfectly frank in that respect."

Government Needs the Money.

"I shall vote for it for another reason. The income of the government this year will show a deficit of sixty million; next year there will be a deficit of forty-five million. I am willing the deficit shall be taken care of by a corporation tax, but at the end of two years it should either be reduced to a nominal amount or repealed."

Mr. Aldrich said that he did not favor a permanent form of taxation "a tax which is sure in the end to destroy the protective system."

At once catching up the words of the senator from Rhode Island Mr. Bailey declared that Mr. Aldrich had announced that his attitude in favoring a corporation tax was a mere subterfuge.

"Under the statement made by the senator from Rhode Island," said Mr. Bailey, "those who have said they favor an income tax and now join him in this subterfuge may see clearly what they are doing. We now are told that this corporation tax is to be entirely repealed or at least emasculated within the next two years and see that after all it is simply a contest between an income tax as part of our fiscal system or a corporation tax as a subterfuge to be continued two years."

Not a Subterfuge.

"My support of the corporation tax," replied Mr. Aldrich promptly, "is not a subterfuge in any sense of the word. The corporation tax is a tax upon corporations, which is clearly within the right of congress to impose, and those senators who are honestly in favor of an income tax that is constitutional and that can be operated with the administration as against the proposition of the senator from Texas, which is, in the minds of most thoughtful people, unconstitutional."

"The least thoughtful people," corrected Mr. Bailey, "Mr. Bailey said that the president had once talked with him respecting the matter of the income tax and he intimated that either the senator from Rhode Island had persuaded the president or the president had persuaded the senator from Rhode Island along lines which formerly had not received the approval of the president."

Bailey Traps Aldrich.

"But," added Mr. Bailey, replying to Mr. Aldrich's denial of the use of the word "subterfuge," "my direct authority for saying this was a subterfuge is the statement of the senator from Rhode Island that he will vote for a corporation tax for the purpose of defeating an income tax. If that does not define a subterfuge we will need a new dictionary."

Again replying Mr. Aldrich said that he favored an income tax only for times of emergency and quoting the senator from Texas, declared that the latter wished to use the tax as a means for destroying the protective system.

BUYING MORE TROUBLE.

One of the richest sections of land in Kansas contains a number of farmers who are depositing every year good sums in the county bank. Many of these farmers, as fast as they accumulate money, purchase more land, then they raise more hogs and more corn, sell the hogs, make more money, buy more land, raise more corn and son on. This means simply that many of these men are slaves to big farms. They are buying more trouble. They have to work longer hours every day. As they get older, instead of enjoying travel, the leisure of some kind of self-education, and their friends, they simply become harder workers. They are well-to-do as far as money is concerned, but have not learned one of the great lessons of life, which is to be content with enough. Why should one deliberately plan to lengthen his day's work unnecessarily, to place burdens upon himself which become every day harder to bear? Yet this is what many farmers of America are constantly doing. It is an unnecessary buying of trouble.

MOTHER ASKS COURT FOR CHARGE OF CHILDREN

Says Home Surroundings Are Immoral—The Court News.

Lena Hendrix filed a petition in the circuit court today in which she asks that she be given the custody of her three children who were awarded at the time a divorce was granted to her former husband, Moritz Kohlhepp. She alleges that the decree was entered October 9, 1932, after a trial before the late Col. R. S. Robertson, who was special judge, and that she was not present at the time and was not notified that the case had been set down for trial.

It is charged that Kohlhepp married an immoral woman and that the children are being raised in a bad atmosphere where language unfit for the ears of children is constantly used. She also says that they have been cruelly mistreated and that one is an inmate of an orphan asylum and she has been denied the privilege of seeing the child. Further she charges that the father has become an habitual drunkard. Emrick and Emrick filed the document.

She says that a switch engine was run over her and after it had passed over one of her legs it was reversed and passed a second time inflicting additional injuries. Phil B. Colerick is her attorney.

It will be decided what kind of a bridge will be constructed and how much will be asked of the county councils for its construction.

AFTER THE SUGAR TRUST.

Pursuit of Big Combine by Government Not Abandoned.

Washington, June 28.—The government has no thought of abandoning the prosecution of the American Sugar Refining company on account of any legal question raised by counsel for the company or for any other reason. The plea advanced by counsel for the company that the statute of limitations operates to bar prosecution contemplated by the government may, it is said, delay its activities for a few days but no longer.

BEGIN WITH THE BOY.

If you are going to do anything permanent for the average man you have got to begin before he is a man. The chance of success lies in working with the boy and not with the man. That applies particularly to those boys who tend to drift off into courses which mean that unless they are checked they will be formidable additions to the criminal population when they grow older.

No nation is safe unless in the average family there are healthy, happy children. If these children are not brought up well they are not merely a curse to themselves and their parents, but they mean the ruin of the state in the future.—Theodore Roosevelt.

BRANDENBURG GOES FREE; CHARGES UNPROVED

Larceny Case Growing Out of Cleveland Letter Has Failed.

New York, June 29.—Broughton Brandenburg was acquitted today on the charge of grand larceny, growing out of the sale to the New York Times of an article purporting to have been signed by Grover Cleveland. He was at once arrested on the charge of kidnapping his stepson, James Shepard Canine, in St. Louis.

Brandenburg's case attracted wide attention because of the prominence of the persons who figured in it and the interest that attached to the thrusting out of the question of the genuineness of the Cleveland article on which the proceedings against him were based.

Mrs. Frances Folsom Cleveland, widow of the late Grover Cleveland, and Richard Watson Gilder, a life-long friend of Mr. Cleveland, both testified the signature attached to the Times' copy of the Cleveland article was a forgery. Justice Fitzgerald today, however, in his charge to the jury, indicated that the alleged forgery of the signature was not the charge against Brandenburg.

The grand larceny charge was based on the payment to Brandenburg by the Times of $500 for an article which was alleged to be a forgery.

The jury was unanimous on the second ballot for his acquittal.

The kidnapping charge is the result of the removal of Brandenburg's stepson from the child's grandmother, Mrs. Julia Cabanne, in St. Louis.

GOSSIP OF THE CITY CAMPAIGN

The proposition to endorse the candidacy of Henry P. Scherer for mayor was under discussion at the meeting of the Federation of Labor last evening, and Messrs. Workman, DeFrame and Lichtenberger were appointed to confer with Mr. Scherer regarding his views and his candidacy. The committee will make its report to the federation July 12, and there is a belief in many quarters that the labor organization will give Mr. Scherer its endorsement.

The meeting of the democratic city central committee which was to have been held this evening has been postponed until Thursday evening.

Appointment of clerks and judges for the primary was partially completed by the republican city committee at its meeting last evening. Remains vacancies will be filled by the end of the week, says Chairman Carpenter.

THE DEATHS.

DRY.

John T. Dry, 59 years of age, a contractor at Tyrone, Pa., died at 8:15 o'clock Monday evening at the home of his niece, Mrs. Charles Sosenheimer, 1811 Lafayette street, where he was a guest. Death was due to pneumonia. Mr. Dry and his son, returning eastward from a trip to Chicago, stopped off in Fort Wayne to visit friends, and was taken very ill early Sunday morning. His wife was notified of her husband's critical condition, but did not reach Fort Wayne until noon today, too late to see her husband alive. Mr. Dry was a prominent steel and concrete contractor, with extensive business interests at Tyrone, and had never known a day of severe illness until he was stricken in Fort Wayne. He is survived by the widow and eight children—Charles Dry, who is well known in Fort Wayne, and who accompanied his father to this city; Grantville, Howard and Ralph Dry, Mrs. Charles Ermine and Mrs. Clair Thompson, all of Tyrone, Pa.; Mrs. Don L. Chapman, of Salem, Ohio, and Mrs. G. W. Woods, of Beaver Falls, Pa. Fort Wayne relatives are Wilbur Kaup, a nephew, and Mrs. Sosenheimer, a niece, at whose home Mr. Dry's death occurred.

The remains will be shipped this evening to Tyrone for funeral services and interment.

MILLER.

Mrs. Sophia Miller, wife of Ernest Miller, died at 9:45 o'clock Monday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Louis Gehrke, 301 West Williams street, from stomach trouble and exhaustion.

Mrs. Miller was 65 years of age, born in Germany and came to Fort Wayne at the age of 8 years. Her marriage to Mr. Miller occurred October 4, 1864. She had been in failing health for some time. Surviving are the husband and three children—Mrs. Gehrke, Mrs. Mary Lehnkuhl and J. Louis Miller. She was a member of Emmaus Lutheran church.

Funeral services Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence and at 2:30 from Emmaus Lutheran church.

We will sell 200 harvest hats at 10c each this week. This hat sells at 25c in the other stores.

THE TALE OF THOUSANDS

The Scientist and His Great Discovery.

Many things have been advertised in the local papers for human ailments, but nothing has created the talk and enthusiastic praise in this city and vicinity like Root Juice. Most of those who take the remedy a short while can not say too many good things for the scientist and this wonderful health-promoting discovery. While here the scientist said: "The medicine does not cure disease, it simply removes the cause and gives nature a chance. That is why so many people get well after taking the Juice awhile." Many local people permitted their names to be published in this paper because the remedy cured them and they continue to report at the drug store some great good the Juice is doing. It is certainly a great medicine for the stomach, liver and kidneys. Indigestion, constipation, rheumatism, backache, sick headache, nervousness, and other symptoms of a disordered condition of the digestive and secretory organs are soon removed under the Juice treatment. They are pleased to tell about it at Bradley Bros., successors to Wagner drug store, 627 Calhoun street. Root Juice is $1 a bottle. Three bottles, $2.50.

Kidnaped! Read "The Red Dress"

A great detective story written around a heart-absorbing and timely topic, the kidnapping of a little boy. Luther Trant, psychologist detective, brings him back by the aid of the autograph. More treats:
"Mr. Marston's Chauffeurette," by Ellis Parker Butler, author of "Pigs in Pigs." Mr. Marston buys an airship and hires a lady-like chauffeur to chauff it. The things that happen make thirty minutes of the funniest reading that has been printed in English in thirty years.

An exceptional story, called "The Wood Box," by Gouverneur Morris. The leading character is one of the most remarkably interesting women you have ever met in a story. Full of life and vigor and color, and the "Wood Box"—well, it was used to hide a Frenchman—and a romance. Read it in

THE INDUSTRIAL SEWING SCHOOL

By MARY WILLIARD, Supt.

The Industrial Sewing school which is conducted by the Relief Union has just completed a successful year's work.

The school had an enrollment of eighty-three girls whose ages ranged from seven to seventeen. The general attendance averaged fifty. Lessons were given in plain sewing, darning and buttonhole work. At the beginning of the term the children were told that prizes would be given for the best attendance and the best sewing.

Mrs. C. S. Knight donated a bolt of gingham to the school and after the children had been taught how to hold the needle and to make neat stitches on samples they were set to work on large kitchen aprons for their mothers. The children were encouraged to bring work from home, such as darning, hemming napkins and little aprons for themselves.

Mrs. Allen Hamilton entertained the children at her home on Christmas, and Miss Edna Reuss opened her home to the school on Easter and the last day of school the Relief Union entertained the children on the lawn at the place, 434 Madison street, in the rear of the house. After the children were served ice cream, strawberries and cake, prizes were given to those who did not miss a day during the school term.

Those who received a prize, which was a silver thimble with their initials engraved on them, are Theo Wolf, Imogene Wolf, Leota Schwalm, Eva Schwalm, Grace Prince, Clara Anderson and Myrtle Beitzell. Theo Wolf received first prize for best sewer, which was a pair of scissors, and Viola McCarthy second prize, a beautiful workbox.

The teachers who assisted in this noble work were Mesdames Stephen Bond, Helen Knight Hamilton, George Rabus and the Misses John, Florence Barrett, Eleanor Bond, Flora Peters, Edna Reuss, Mary McDonald, Mary Knight, Mary Willard and Stella McCoy. The readers were Misses Lura Fee and Stella McKay.

Pekin, June 29.—Telegrams to the British legation detail the murder in Kan-su province of a Sikh attaché of the exploration party headed by Lieutenant Robert S. Clark, of New York. INDIAN LAND TANGLE AGAIN GIVING TROUBLE

Too Many Little Turtles Result in Confusion at Huntington.

Huntington, Ind., June 29.—Title to 640 acres of Little Turtle reserve east of the city, including several farms and all of Bowerstown, is being given extensive attention by the interior office at Washington, D. C., advisory to President Taft, with a possibility that the matter may be made the subject of a special bill before congress, unless an adjustment can be made otherwise.

Some months ago the Jones Abstract company, in making an abstract on certain lands in the reserve, sent to Washington and got a copy of the original patent to the land given to the Miami Indians. This set up that the land could not be sold except by consent of the president of the United States by Little Turtle and his heirs. The land was sold, but no record was given of such permission by the president, thus creating a flaw in the title. To get the matter adjusted Attorney C. K. Lucas a few weeks ago was in Washington in conference with representatives of the interior department, the nature of his visit not being given publicly until certain evidence had been gathered. A brief on the matter has been prepared by Mr. Lucas and will be presented to the commissioner of interior affairs, probably to be referred to the president. The land in question is held by Newton Cameron, C. H. Bailey, the Roche estate, Peter Martin, the Dumbauld heirs and by those owning property at Bowerstown.

Little Turtle reserve contains 640 acres and lies south of Little river. It was ceded by treaty to Little Turtle and the Miami Indians in 1818 by the government and article 6 of that treaty provides that none of the land could ever be transferred by any of the Indians or their heirs without the approval of the president of the United States.

After the death of Little Turtle his heirs went into court at Fort Wayne and had an administrator appointed and the court empowered him to sell the land and pay off the debts of the estate. The court evidently not knowing of the provisions of article 6 in the original treaty. This section of land was sold in those early days for $10,700. Mr. Lucas will endeavor to have President Taft approve the sale of the land, and if this plan fails it will then be necessary to go to congress in order to clear the title perfectly.

Two Little Turtles.
Evidence has been secured that there were two Miami Indians known as Little Turtle. One was a famous chief who fought against Mad Anthony Wayne. He died on his reserve on Eel river in 1813. The other Little Turtle was known as Meshenogqua, who was probably a minor chief of the Miami and to whom the land in question was granted by treaty in 1818. He lived in Allen county and died near Fort Wayne about 1830. It is under the latter Little Turtle that the present owners of land allege the difficulty arose, caused by the confusion of the two names. The evidence will soon be submitted to the department of the interior for final action.

Heirs of the Eel River Little Turtle have made claim to the Little river land and asked for a patent for it at the interior department, and for this reason the department must have the best of evidence before taking any action in this case.

Only Lands Involved.
An interesting feature connected with Indian titles is that none of the Indian lands in Huntington county, excepting the Little Turtle reserve in question and lands in section 15 in Doline township, are affected by such stipulation as requires the president's consent to sell by the original owners or their heirs. In all other cases the treaties give the lands in fee simple. The outcome of the matter will be a matter of some interest locally, though it is believed the evidence is all one way. A few of the distant relatives of Little Turtle still live in this part of Indiana, but are laying no claim to the lands in question, where possession had been undisputed for years, the only question arising is completing the chain of title for an abstract.

REAL TARIFF DICTATORS.

Some ninety members of the United States senate and some three hundred and ninety members of the national house of representatives have been gridding away with great energy of jaw at the tariff schedules in the delusion that they are, as the constitution directs, the makers of the laws. Well into its fourth month the great labor has progressed and soon the tariff bill will be turned out by the senate. Then the conference for reconciling differences between the measure as the house passed it and the measure as the senate will have passed it comes on.

At this point the real tariff makers will assume charge. Your Uncle Neil Aldrich, of the little old state of Rhode Island, and your other uncle, Joe Cannon, of the great corned state of Illinois, will decide what is what. President Taft will be the third man in the ring, but not as referee. Uncle Neil and Uncle Joe will be one party and the president the other. The other party may be able to exert some influence, but being only the president of the United States and not the speaker of its house or the dictator of its senate, he will not saw a great deal of wood.

Aldrich will pick out the senate conferees and Cannon will pick out the house conferees. And don't lay your money against the proposition that both are good pickers. There will go into the conference the pick and perfection, the very bloom and virtue of all standpatism. And when they get through making the tariff bill conform to the brief but sufficient gospel of standpatism the tariff revision measure will prove that the meaning of the term downward has been reversed in congress or that the man who put the tariff promise in the republican platform did a surreptitious and uncalled for thing.

However, the dog days are almost upon us, the wrangling has been long and time is fleeting. Business habits, the country is impatient and the longer the special session lasts the worse a good many statesmen appear. Let there be done with the bill what is liked. It isn't revision anywar, and the tariff disturbance should cease.

CATHOLICS FIGHT SALOONS.

One of the most notable and impressive anti-saloon meetings held anywhere in the country took place in Chicago Sunday. The Illinois Total Abstinence society placed itself at the head of a great movement of statewide scope for the extinction of the dramshop. Powerful addresses and aggressive resolutions expressed the spirit and purpose of the meeting. There was no word of compromise, no hint of half-way measures of reform, no altruistic nonsense that the saloon "is all right in its place" and that the "good saloon licensed and regulated is better than no saloon." On the contrary a war of extermination was proclaimed and the clergy and communicants of the great Catholic church in Illinois will be urged to join in the campaign. It is proposed to have an aggressive organization in every parish from Chicago to Cairo for the purpose of fighting the saloon and communicants of the church are urged to vote for extinction of the saloon at every opportunity.

The Chicago meeting was but preliminary to the national convention of Catholic total abstinence societies in the same city next August, at which time it is expected a stupendous campaign against the liquor traffic throughout the country will be organized and launched. In the meantime the work will go forward in Illinois.

The importance of this movement to the temperance cause cannot well be overestimated. The zeal, the energy, the militant devotion of the Catholic clergy to any great question that may engage them are a tradition as old as the Christian era. With them proclaiming war against the liquor traffic and enlisting for the conflict and going out on the firing line as they purpose to do the result can hardly be held in doubt.

ENDING A GREAT STRIKE.

Sunday witnessed the inauguration of a great street railway strike in Pittsburgh. This morning all of the strikers returned to work on terms agreeable to themselves and to the traction corporation. This result grew out of a disposition on both sides to yield something until a ground of mutual agreement was reached and the strike was then over. A situation pregnant with very grave disorders, dangerous to property and perilous to human life has been averted along with the customary train of business and personal distresses that are the inseparable accompaniments of all transportation strikes in large cities. Yesterday it looked as though Pittsburgh was in for an agonizing season of business disturbance, public inconvenience and strike violence. Today there is not a ripple on the surface of the situation to indicate there has been the least convulsion. A similar disposition to get together and have an end of their trouble would soon put the Evansville traction company and its men on mutually acceptable footing. Instead, the strike, already greatly prolonged, drags on and the situation becomes hourly more tense, bitter and perilous. Some time it will be left to the complaisance of neither corporations nor their operatives in public service concerns to determine when and how they are going to settle their difficulties. The public convenience and good order will stand first.

The senate is said to have made a thousand changes in the tariff bill since it came from the house. Pertinent to remark that within a not great while there are going to be quite a few changes in the senate. The tariff bill is going to turn out to be a great changer in many ways, no doubt.

Governor Marshall put a new man on the board of trustees for the reformatory the other day. Assistant superintendent of the institution has just got off his job. Quick work but not likely to please contractors doing business with the reformatory.

Aeroplaning, it will be noted, is yet far from perfection. Little things like the velocity of the wind, its direction and steadiness to a course continue to cut the figure in heavier than air aviation.

Lovely hot weather in Washington and the senate is sizzling. But everybody pities the poor senators who have such an awful lot of talking to do. That helps some, we hope.

As much as has been cabled of Rudyard Kipling's latest poem is ample reason why the balance of it needn't be.

Some window displays hereabouts hardly indicate a concerted effort to make 'er safe and sane this year.

BOMBS IN BARCELONA.

Barcelona, June 29.—Bombs were exploded at midnight last night in two of the Barcelona theaters. One of the play houses was empty but the other was crowded and the audience was thrown into a panic. One man was fatally wounded.

Part of Sixteenth street in Washington is to have its name changed to "Avenue of the Presidents."

TAXPAYERS' LEAGUE MEANS BUSINESS IN LAPORTE

Rounding Up Law Violators as it Promised in the Option Battle.

Laporte, Ind., June 29.—A gratifying example of the manner in which the citizens of a county can insist upon the enforcement of law and take steps to protect themselves against possible encroachment on their rights is shown in the activity of the Taxpayers' League in Laporte county. This league, which now numbers about 1,000 members, has determined to put every "blind tiger" in the county out of existence and has declared for the enforcement of all laws against saloonkeepers. The organization is standing behind the officials and backing them up in their efforts to round up the violators of the law.

Ever since Laporte county voted "wet" at its local option election the Taxpayers' League has been active, particularly in bringing about the arrest of violators of the liquor laws. It was active in support of an ordinance passed by the city council of Laporte, limiting the number of saloons within the city limits to twenty-nine, the present number, until the city's population reaches 15,000. Laporte now has a population of approximately 12,000.

Revocation is threatened. Mayor Darrow has served notice upon the saloonkeepers that he will revoke the license of any saloon found to be operated by a brewery. The Taxpayers' League has already caused the arrest of a number of men caught operating "blind tigers" in "dry" townships—townships that were made "dry" by remonstrance. It recently caused the arrest of two saloonkeepers for selling liquor on Sunday. One of these, Louis Heun, was fined $75 and costs. During the past few days three men were arrested in New Durham township for operating "blind tigers." These men have been bound over to the circuit court. Ten days ago a "blind tiger" was rooted out of Pleasant township at Stillwell and James Kelley, the alleged keeper thereof, was fined $80.

Last Friday the bartenders of two saloons and the driver of a beer wagon faced Judge Grover on the charge of selling liquor to minors. The three men got into trouble because Ernest Baker, a painter who had been employed in Laporte for some time, decided to entertain his brother Jesse, of Three Rivers, Mich., in a "heating" manner. Ernest is only 17 years of age and his brother is 19. Prosecuting Attorney Smith learned that the young men had been in the saloons conducted by Frank Tafel and had been at Christ Noll's bottling works and were said to have secured their liquor at these places.

Fined for Sales to Minors. His information was that the bartenders of the saloons had made the sales in the absence of the proprietors, while at the Noll place the wagon driver was alleged to have made the sale. Upon affidavits made by one of the Baker boys warrants were issued for the arrest of William Carl, of the John M. Carl saloon; S. Ake, of the Tafel saloon; and L. Wilk, of the Noll place. Carl and Ake entered pleas of guilty and were each fined $20 and costs.

Information concerning the law violations is furnished by members of the Taxpayers' League, who are constantly on the alert. When a man violates the law he does not know by whom he is being watched, and he is practically certain to be seen by some member of the league. The consequences are that he is soon hauled into court. The league promises to be the one big factor in the politics of Laporte county and will soon make itself felt in the city light in Laporte.

Backed by the league Prosecutor Smith is making every effort to close both Laporte and Michigan City every Sunday. His task in the latter place is not an easy one, as there is considerable excursion business for the saloons there each Sunday from Chicago and other points and close watch must be maintained. The reform movement has reached undreamed of proportions in Laporte county.

Several oil-painting views of scenes about Madison, Ind., are being shown in the windows of the Dreier pharmacy on Calhoun street. The work is by W. M. Snyder and the painting of the "Shelving Rock," a noted scene about that city, is attracting considerable attention.

ISRAEL DURHAM IS GIVEN A SUDDEN CALL HENCE

Life of Greatest Political Boss Philadelphia Ever Had is Ended.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 29.—State Senator Israel W. Durham, once one of the most popular political leaders who ever held sway in Philadelphia, died suddenly of heart disease at his summer home in Atlantic City yesterday afternoon.

The senator, whose health had been poor for several years, was convalescing from an acute attack of grip con-fracted at Harrisburg last winter during the session of the legislature.

ISRAEL WILSON DURHAM

Death came almost immediately after he had eaten luncheon. He was seated at the table with his sister, Mrs. Philip H. Johnson, who had been his devoted attendant since he first became ill about five years ago. As he arose he pitched forward and fell into his sister's arms. He was unconscious, and a doctor who was hastily summoned said that death ensued almost immediately, heart disease being the probable cause.

In an effort to regain his health the senator made several trips to Europe, but he never got back to the rugged condition of his early life. He was the undisputed head of the republican organization in this city from 1898 to 1905, but he gradually relinquished the reins of leadership, his friend and business associate, James P. McNichol, becoming his successor.

Rise from the Ranks. "Is" Durham, as he was familiarly known, was popular among all classes. He was 53 years old and rose to almost national political prominence from the ranks. It was Mayor Weaver who first christened him "The Peerless Leader" and it was Weaver who did most to bring about his political retirement.

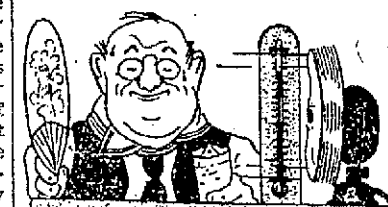

Israel Durham was born in the old section of Philadelphia on Oct. 24, 1856. He early voted schools a bore and was indentured to a bricklayer. He had worked his way into the Boys' high school, but would not continue his studies.

Upon deciding to give up bricklaying, he entered his father's establishment and successfully sold flour.

Political Start as Reformer. In the first campaign for reform waged by the committee of one hundred the young man got his initiation into practical politics. His brother was a reform candidate for the council and was beaten by trickery.

Stung by the unfairness of the whole proceeding, Durham set about at once to make a deal with the democrats. As a result of this combination Gen. George H. Snowden was nominated and, with the help of Durham, was elected.

The election of Snowden made Israel Durham the logical leader of his ward, and for more than twenty years no one was strong enough to contest his right to rule.

Never Trouble by the Law.

Durham was elected a magistrate in 1885 and again in 1890. In 1895 he declined re-nomination. A magistrate in Philadelphia is a police court judge, and many stories are told concerning the performances of Judge Durham. The law of the land never troubled him. He was upright and merciful.

Any man he knew could enter bail before him, whether he was otherwise qualified or not, and as he was easy to find at all hours of the day and night, his bail places were presented at the county prison almost as regularly as the bell at the gate rang. Lawyers having business before Judge Durham never discussed the law. They stated the plain facts in simple language.

It was in 1895, after having served ten years as a magistrate, that Durham entered the larger field of state politics as Quay's chief lieutenant. For three years thereafter he added victory after victory to his banner in the many celebrated political tactics—city, state, and national. He built up an ironclad "organization."

If Durham suggested the removal of a placeholder he was discharged by telegraph. Promotions were made in a minute and salaries were raised while the favored son of the "organization" waited. Since he by the score were created for men whom Durham liked or who needed the money.

Millions Involved in Graft.

Millions of dollars were distributed in the way of franchises and other millions through impossible contracts. The beginning of the end came during Mayor Weaver's second administration. Investigations were started. The executive dismissed most of his cabinet members, all Durham men, and there were prosecutions.

Durham gave up the reins as "boss" and went to retirement until he was elected to the state senate.

"FOUR" SHOES ON "FIVE" FEET

Clever Shoe Dealer Gets Wise to Society Fad and Captures Big Shoe Trade

There's isn't a woman alive who does not like to have small feet. A bright local shoe dealer whose store is very well known, was thinking about this fad of society women and wondering how he could take advantage of it, when one day, as he was trying on a pair of shoes for a prominent society lady, she gave him the tip. He immediately followed it up, and his trade began to increase rapidly. When questioned about it the dealer said: "It is a well known fact that new shoes that are really the right size for a lady's foot will often slip on so hard when being fitted that she is afraid to take them. Consequently, the custom has grown up among shoe dealers to put starch or French chalk in the shoe before trying it on. One day a customer said to me: 'Instead of putting that chalk in my shoes why don't you sprinkle in By-Lo Talcum Powder? It's the slickest and smoothest powder you ever saw. It is so much better than anything else that I ever heard of that I use it in my shoes all the time. It is remarkable how sweet and soft it keeps the leather.'"

Then the shoe dealer became confidential and continued to explain: "So I bought some By-Lo Talcum Powder and began to use it in place of the old fashioned starch or chalk. Customers began to talk about the ease with which our shoes slipped on and how comfortable they were on the feet. I soon had a great many inquiries as to where By-Lo Powder could be obtained for regular use."

"By-Lo Talcum Powder proved to be of a peculiar softness not found in other powders, and it answered my purpose far in excess of my expectations. The distinctive violet odor attracted attention to the extent that my friend, the druggist, enjoyed quite a run on By-Lo through my recommendation, though, be it understood, the ladies were familiar with the advantage of a By-Lo Talcum Powder as a toilet requisite—for which purpose they were in the habit of using it extensively."

"Quite by accident another feature of By-Lo Talcum Powder was discovered. Having wet my shoes in a shower I found them afterwards with the inside quite damp. Not only this, but they were 'hard'—we all know how leather contracts and draws together after being wet.

"Well, By-Lo was used liberally and with its usual good results. The unnaturally hard leather slipped on my feet with ease, and at no sacrifice of comfort. Then I realized that by its marked absorbent properties the By-Lo Talcum Powder had absorbed all the moisture in the leather and lining, the shoes regained their correct softness and shape, and all danger from dampness was alleviated."

"By-Lo Talcum Powder is highly borated, and thoroughly medicated, and therefore offers a foot treatment not to be overlooked. Sprinkle By-Lo in shoes and stockings and corns, calloused spots, bunions and abrasions are quickly relieved, and a return of the affliction prevented. You can walk farther with less effort and no discomfort and be free from the most depressing and disagreeable foot troubles."

Any druggist who sells By-Lo Talcum—and all high class druggists do sell it—will confirm the above statements as to the value of this fine toilet powder. In addition they will all tell you of the decided preference By-Lo has over other toilet or face powders for everyday toilet uses. For instance, By-Lo is of impalpable fineness and dainty odor and sticks to the face better than face powder. It gives a youthful tint to the skin; still, any "powder effects" are invisible.

By-Lo is a wonderful protection to the skin in hot days, cold days, or damp days; the sun of summer does not build up a tan when By-Lo protects the face.

As a dainty, delicate, perfect toilet powder to use on baby's tender skin By-Lo is unsurpassed. It quickly relieves chafing, smarting and absorbs perspiration.

The gentlemen, too, depend on By-Lo as the "just right" application after shaving.

By-Lo Violet Talcum Powder comes in a handsome patent sifter top can and offers a larger package than usual for the price—and a better powder at any price. Costs a quarter at your drug store.

ELECTRIC TALKS

No. 146

Public Lighting Should Protect

That a public lighting plant is for lighting the public is not such a really difficult proposition to grasp.

Yet it takes constant pounding to impress it on Fort Wayne's City administration.

Witness the following from the Sentinel of June 19:

"The complaint is renewed that there is not enough light in the City parks. It is true. It has always been true since Fort Wayne has had parks.

"All of the public parks should be thoroughly illuminated at night, whereas they are not at present sufficiently lighted to make points wholly distinguishable or easy to locate.

"This condition is true of all of them, but it is especially true at Swinney park, which is a place of deep shadows. Lawton park likewise needs more light, and the same is true of McCullough park.

"These parks are not nor have ever been thoroughly policed. INSUFFICIENT POLICE PATROL can very largely be made up by better illumination.

"Well lighted places are not conducive of disorder, rowdism and unseemly conduct.

"As it now is the SHADOWS throw their protection over a deal of MISDOINGS in the parks."

Has the present City administration ever shown any great anxiety to stamp out such "misdoing" by the use of more lights?

It strikes the reader of Fort Wayne dailies for the past six months that the burden of many an editorial song has been the neglect or delay of that administration to place lights where they would discourage "misdoings."

If the City administration had placed enough lights near the corner of Calhoun and Columbia streets to discourage "misdoings" among the street-parading youth of lax morals and late hours, do you suppose the business men of that district would have been so ready to subscribe hundreds of dollars for its present illumination?

Just ask some of them and find out how far earlier lack of proper street lighting and its policing power was a compelling cause to a self-defensive illumination AT PRIVATE EXPENSE.

As the Journal-Gazette of June 20 well says:

"It ought not be necessary for the people to BEG FOR LIGHTS for their parks; it ought not be necessary for the people to beg for street lights ANYWHERE in the City, and that the people have to beg for lights proves that their City is paying more attention to commercial lighting than it is to public lighting.

"Probably the administration hopes that by keeping THE PEOPLE ON THE OUTSIDE in the DARK they will be more apt to see the dollars earned by commercial lights on the inside.

"And these very people ARE TAXED RIGHT ALONG to keep up the street lighting fund.

"They get a good price for the downtown street rainbows, throw a few electrical halos into the game for good luck and walk home in the dark.

"Yes, their parks are in the dark, their homes are in the dark, their wives and children are in the dark, and all for the great American privilege of demonstrating that by taking money from their pockets and putting it into the public treasury they can reduce the taxable valuation of a private corporation and put less money into circulation.

"It may be well to keep it dark."

It would seem that, after all, we must depend for real light on the City press and not on the City plant!

IN THE CITY'S CHURCHES

TWO NIGHTS OF CONCERT AT THE ST. JOHN'S SCHOOL

Programs to Mark Close of Year's Work—News of the Churches.

Although studies were discontinued a week ago at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran school, the formal closing of the scholastic year will occur this evening when the twelfth annual concert will be given by the school children. The program which is already prepared, consists of fifteen numbers and the boys and girls will participate in the program this evening after the concert the children will be served with ice cream and cake by the Woman's Missionary society. Tomorrow evening the concert program will be repeated and refreshments will be furnished by the school board.

Two special features of the program will be "Mother's Day at Robison Park," a sketch for nineteen girls and a boy, and "Der Sterbender Waise Trauer," a series of tableaux, both numbers being arranged by the pastor, Rev. H. P. Dannecker. The concert this season promises to be one of the most enjoyable affairs of its kind ever given by the local school and an unusually large attendance is expected both tonight and tomorrow night.

The pastor at St. John's church announces that with the exception of the mission festival evening in August, all Sunday evening services during the months of July and August will be suspended.

The regular monthly meeting of the vestry of St. John's church will be held on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the school hall. At 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, July 11, the quarterly meeting of the congregation will be held in the church.

The date for the annual mission festival at Swinney park in August has not as yet been determined. Several out of town ministers will assist Rev. Dannecker at that time.

PROGRAM AT Y. W. C. A. GYM.

Miss Philley's Elocution Class Gives Fine Entertainment.

A large audience enjoyed and greatly appreciated the program given by Miss Philley's elocution class at the Y. W. C. A. gymnasium last evening. A tendency to give vent to enthusiastic approval called forth a courteous request from Miss Philley to kindly refrain from encores for fear of prolonging the exercises to too great length.

The evening's entertainment consisted of a farce "playlet" entitled "Engaging Janet," preceded by a short program of selected readings and musical numbers. Miss Maude Challenger recited "The Gazelle and Swan" with much feeling and expression; Miss Virginia Philley gave the entire trial scene from the "Merchant of Venice," the different characters conception of the different characters and a skill in rendition rarely seen in so youthful a student. Miss Lettie Wilson's amusing monologue "Two Lines" was an excellent take off on some women's (not the average woman's) idea of the value of other people's time, and, incidentally, of advertising space. A "Study in Attitudes" by Miss Beatrice Hamlett set off to good advantage the young girl's natural grace of movement. The Misses Ingham rendered two selections in a musically and pleasing manner.

In the little farce character of "Janet Clark," who is looking for a "career" (which of course ends in matrimony) Miss Blanch Holt was the would-be serious, but really light-hearted "sweet girl graduate" to the life. The feminine forces seeking to launch "Janet" in a "career" but who succeeded only in hastening her into matrimony, were ably portrayed by Miss Helen Ingham as "Miss Briggs" of the Amalgamated Charities; Miss Isadore Stump as "Madame Maude," a "beauty doctor"; Miss Edna McGuire as "Miss Bumps"; a Boston literary light; Miss Lulu Schmidt as Miss Higgins from "The Woman's Employment Bureau"; Miss Mary Philley as "Bridget" the "help"; and by Miss Maude Challenger, who, as "Miss Spike" representing the "Teachers' Training Trust," is the embodiment of the one time (now happily obsolete) prim, severe, repellent "School Ma'am."

Altogether the entertainment reflected great credit upon teacher and pupils alike, and was a source of much enjoyment to those present as well as of gratifying profit to the Y. W. C. A. fund for which it was given.

The proceeds of the entertainment will be devoted to the paying of expenses of delegates to the Y. W. C. A. conference at Lake Geneva, Wis., in August. A meeting will be held by the association in the near future to decide on the delegates.

ELEVENTH ANNUAL PICNIC.

Congregation of Precious Blood Church to Celebrate on July 5th.

The eleventh annual picnic given by the congregation of the Church of the Precious Blood will be held on Monday, July 5th, in the grove, corner Fourth and Andrew streets. Various booths will be erected by the societies of the church and the ladies will serve dinner and supper.

The amusement features will be in charge of a number of committees and the day's celebration promises to be carried out on a larger scale than in former years. Rev. Chrysostom Hummer, C. P. S., is pastor of the Precious Blood church and is ably assisted in the conduct of the annual festivity by his co-operative congregation.

The ENTIRE STOCK to be sold out in 10 days. $50,000 worth of High Grade, Tailor Made Clothes, Furnishing Goods, Hats and Caps for Men, Boys and Children. We are forced to have room for our fall shipments.

Pinched for Room

Owing to the recent depression in the money market and the threatened panic times throughout the country it has caused an unusual depression in our trade, both for the spring and summer, for which we had bought heavier than usual, figuring on one of our best seasons; consequently, we were left with a large stock on our hands and at this time we find ourselves with the greater part of our spring purchases on our tables including the most famous tailor-made Suits and Overcoats. As it has always been our custom to offer perfectly fresh lines of clothes every season we have again bought heavily for the fall. As it is about time for our fall arrivals we take this means to place this large stock on sale in our building, and consequently, we are pinched for room, and for 10 days we will begin the greatest slaughter of modern merchandise known to the mercantile business of Fort Wayne. Our building will be closed to re-arrange our mammoth stock, but will be open again on WEDNESDAY, JUNE 30, at 9 a. m. in our large building, 618 Calhoun Street.

We are going to inaugurate the greatest merchandise sale ever known in this part of the country. It will be a stupendous undertaking, and no other concern in Indiana has ever undertaken to sell so large a stock of merchandise in so short a space of time. It will be a rare opportunity for every man and boy in this community to secure high-grade clothing at manufacturers' cost. The prices we will place on this high-grade stock will be found to "move it rapidly." Our financial ability enables us to distribute our entire stock into the homes of the people for less than the actual cost of the raw material and our determination is to turn this stock over to the people in 10 days at a great loss to us, but it will make us forever MASTERS OF THE CLOTHING FIELD. We must and will have room for our new fall purchases. Remember the sale will positively begin WEDNESDAY, JUNE 30th, at 9 a. m., in our large building at 618 CALHOUN street, between Main and Columbia, Fort Wayne, Indiana.

SOCIETY

Chic Over Blouse of Silk

BY MRS. JANE FORL.

509
SIZES 32 TO 42 BUST

These little overwaists, such as the one pictured, bid fair to become as popular as the jumper and are rapidly taking its place. Like the shirt waist, women refuse to put aside the useful little top blouses, and enthusiastically welcome any variation in the style that will tend to bring such modes up to date.

The pattern for the one offered here is cut in six sizes and will fit women from thirty-two to forty-two inches bust measure. To copy this waist for the average person requires two and one-eighth yards of goods twenty-seven inches wide or one and five-eighths yards thirty-six inches in width.

The closing of this waist is effected at the side, which offers opportunity for carrying out many pretty ideas in the way of trimming. When the waist is to be used in connection with a skirt to form a costume the trimming scheme must be planned accordingly. Unless the style of the skirt should prohibit it, an effective and altogether satisfactory method of arrangement is that of continuing the banding, piping or other trimming down the skirt to the very bottom in a line with that used on the side of the waist.

When buttons are a part of the ornamentation of the waist they should also be placed on the skirt. The skillful selection of a color scheme goes far toward making a waist or dress appear well trimmed with a small outlay of money. Piplings offer an excellent opportunity to introduce the desired contrast, and are not difficult to apply. A yard or two of goods which does not need to be high priced and a few minutes' time to cut the bias strips is all that is required. They are then joined, the seams carefully pressed open and the strip doubled. It is then basted along the edge to be trimmed and stitched on, the right side.

When the edges are finished as suggested it will add much to the appearance of the waist if two rows of straps one-quarter of an inch wide, of the same material as the piping, are placed a half inch back from the edge and a half inch apart.

trimmed with flowers and aigrettes. Instead of a bouquet the bride held her prayer book with marker of ribbon and flowers. Miss Anna Hensler was the bridesmaid and Mr. John Schulteis, a brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The bridesmaid was gowned in white and wore a white hat. The wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, 612 Walnut street, and was attended by immediate relatives.

A Country Party.

The ladies of the Caledonian society enjoyed an outing on Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Gillie, who live on the Hatfield farm. There were thirty ladies in the party and a splendid dinner was a feature of the entertainment. Two weeks previous the same company were entertained by Mr.

Woodworth-Avery.

Many friends in this city of Edward J. Woodworth, who formerly lived here, will be interested in the following account of his marriage which appeared in the Fort Collins, Colo., Morning Express on June 24:

"The home of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Avery was the scene of two important events in the history of that family at noon Wednesday. One was a wedding and the other a christening. At noon, just as the clock was striking 12, the Rev. George P. Avery, an uncle of the bride, pronounced the words which made Miss Ethel E. Avery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Avery, and Edward J. Woodworth man and wife. The ceremony was attended by only the members of the two families. Immediately after the wedding ceremony Florence, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Avery, brother and sister-in-law of the newly wedded couple, was christened. The wedded couple left in the afternoon for Denver and Colorado Springs to spend their honeymoon. On their return they will make their home on the large fruit tract owned by the bridegroom west of town."

A Country Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Sorg, of Hoagland, entertained on Sunday at dinner, the members of the R. R. club, of the carbon mounting department of the General Electric company. The guests who enjoyed the day were Misses Goldie Heller, Mabel Ryan, Mina and Clara Smith, Angela Longhals, Katherine Flagg, Lillian Van Arsdol, Ella Rathbone, Golda Moorhead and Barbara Sorg.

IN THE THEATERS

At the Majestic Airdome. Entertainment at the Majestic airdome this week is just the right kind for a hot night. There is amusement, variety and interesting features, all of which tends towards making this spot one of the most popular in the city. The moving pictures are a specialty this week, as they show ex-President Roosevelt in the jungles of Africa doing things and daring things which no one feels on a hot night like duplicating even if one could. However, the pictures are interesting. For musical parts of the program, there is Mr. Jones' singing of an Arizona love ballad with illustrations, and an act on different instruments which Allen and Cromer handle skillfully and at the same time please much with their attractive appearance. For admirers of dancing there are Morgan, King and the Thompson sisters. Humidity or dry heat makes no difference to this agile company when they get to going. Alburto and Altus, whose mere names set people to guessing, handle Indian clubs with almost incredible swiftness. Their work is fascinating and no one does else but watch them while the act is going on. The Alvos have an act that pleases and they come in for a share of attention.

At the Diamond Airdome. "The Ward Healer," a comedy sketch, is the big thing at the Diamond airdome this week and Miss Francis and Mr. Keough, who do the act, made a fine impression on the audience, who gave them as hearty applause as is possible on a hot night. Miss Francis is a pretty woman and her singing pleased, while Mr. Keough makes a hit in the role of the Irish politician. The act is clean and free from horse play. Another feature of the bill is the dancing, somersault and tumbling act of the four English Madcaps. This is an act that is one of the highest priced on any vaudeville stage in this country. The work of the company is great, both individually and together. George W. Day, in a black face act; Miss Helen Tanguay, in beautiful costumes, who sings, and Miss Doris Diamond in illustrated songs make up the bill.

Toronto, Ont., June 29.—For the purpose of going over the regulations contained in the fisheries treaty which has been signed by the president of the United States and the prime minister of Canada, Prof. David Starr Jordan, president of Leland Stanford university, and Prof. E. E. Prince, of Ottawa, are conferring here.

"The regulations have been made international rather than local" said Prof. Jordan, "and will be promulgated by the two governments about the first of next December, to take effect in January 1910 or possibly not till 1911. We have dealt with the matter from the international standpoint as though there were only one country and whatever benefit derived by one will be derived by the other."

One of the fads of the summer is the sash run through beading and tied at the back of the knees, where it falls in soft, drooping ends. The costume is dead white, relieved at breast and sleeves by deep green velvet leaves, which surround white gardenias.

Mouth Washes to Use When the Breath Is Not Pure

There are so many different causes of offensive breath that the remedies are well-nigh endless. If the breath is bad because of disturbance that is local—that is, coming from the mouth—either through the secretions, or from the teeth, a simple home-doctoring will be helpful, but if, after a few days, there is no improvement, the family doctor should be asked to prescribe. There is no more unpleasant affliction than this, for others besides the person himself suffers from it.

Indigestion sometimes has this most unfortunate way of declaring itself, and in that case bi-carbonate of soda may be beneficial. The dose, as prescribed by some physicians, is half a teaspoonful in half a glass of water after meals. This corrects acidity. Charcoal tablets also may be tried.

A mouth wash, in many cases effective, is made from a grain of permanganate of potash and an ounce of rose water. This is used half a dozen times through the day, being sure that the back teeth are rinsed each time. In giving this wash I wish to state that it will stain the teeth unless they are brushed thoroughly each time after it is used. The flavor of the rinse being by no means agreeable, it may be improved by adding a few drops of oil of peppermint.

Another, for the same purpose, is made from a dram of chlorate of potash and three ounces of rose water.

Chlorinated lime, that enters into the composition of many mouth washes, is injurious, for it harms the teeth. Nevertheless, under some conditions it is recommended, but the mouth must be rinsed afterward to prevent damage to the enamel.

These washes should be tried for only a few days. If, at the end of that time, they have not acted as remedies for the trouble, they must be abandoned, for the cause is more deeply rooted. And let it be said in passing that it is not one which any person can afford to permit to continue, if there is any cure.

Woman's Power Over Man

Woman's most glorious endowment is the power to awaken and hold the pure and honest love of a worthy man. When she loses it and still loves on, no one in the wide world can know the heart agony she endures. The woman who suffers from weakness and deterioration of her special womanly organism soon loses the power to sway the heart of a man. Her general health suffers and she loses her good looks, her attractiveness, her amiability and her power and prestige as a woman. Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., with the assistance of his staff of able physicians, has prescribed for and cured many thousands of women. He has devised a successful remedy for woman's ailments. It is known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is a positive specific for the weaknesses and disorders peculiar to women. It purifies, regulates, strengthens and heals. Medicine dealers sell it. No honest dealer will advise you to accept a substitute in order to make a little larger profit.

CHILDREN RALLY FOR THE BIRDS

Army of Young Americans Forming to Protect Songsters, Country's Hope—Schools Spread the Movement.

New York, June 23.—To enlist every American boy and girl in one great child army to guard the bird resources of their country is the object of a campaign that has been begun in this city today. Under the direction of the National Association of Audubon Societies it is planned to try to reach every one of the twenty million school children scattered over the continent and form them into an active and united fighting force for the feathered crop guards, whose butchery is now threatening the agricultural wealth of coming generations. Already it is reported that the children of many states are enrolled in the ranks of this national array of boys and girls, on whom the Audubon officials base their brightest hopes of future protection for the birds.

To muster the children of the south into the van guard of this boy and girl army T. Gilbert Pearson, secretary of the Audubon association has today gone to Knoxville, where he will lecture to several thousand teachers at their summer school on the relation of birds to agriculture and the best methods of teaching this important subject in schools. With an endowment of $100,000, which it is hoped may be obtained from the Peabody fund next fall, this branch of education will be pushed and extended throughout the southern states till every child in this section has become an active advocate of the proper protection of its valuable bird resources.

From Ohio it is reported today that the boys of Cincinnati are already heading an extensive child movement in that state by building 1,200 houses for the birds, who sadly need their shelter in the parks. Instead of robbing birds' nests of their eggs, these boys, as well as many others throughout the country, are now interested in the equally interesting occupation of making and placing these bird shelters in the trees where they will be patronized by the native flocks. Such work has been done in Germany for a long time with splendid results.

On the Pacific coast and in New England the children are now ready to organize for the work of guarding their birds, in which their elders are actively interested. In New York state hundreds of thousands of school children are known to be eager to enlist. The boys and girls of Illinois are also reported to be preparing to make up a good large section of the young army. Thousands of pamphlets showing the children the use and habits of over sixty American bird species have been distributed in schools over the entire country by the National Association of Audubon Societies during the past year in preparation for this movement by American boys and girls. If sufficient funds become available for this educational campaign it is planned to spread the knowledge of every bird in the land in this way to every school house on the continent.

"We must depend on the little folk to take up this battle for the birds which we have waged for years all over the country," said William Dutcher, president of the National Association of Audubon Societies at its headquarters, 141 Broadway, today. "Besides the great sentimental interest which the children take in the feathered songsters of their home country, they must be taught to realize that their native land will become barren in a few generations if the insect-eating birds are not preserved and increased. This is a great and vital work of national education and we hope to rally thousands of parents to its active support."

TAKE A TONIC FOR NEURALGIA

Highest Medical Authorities Agree on Treatment for This Painful Disease.

Neuralgia is inflammation of a nerve. This inflammation is sometimes caused by exposure to cold, sometimes by the nerve irritation arising from a decayed tooth. Of all causes, however, a general debility of the system is by far the most frequent. Authorities agree that the proper treatment for neuralgia is to build up the strength and health of the body. A nourishing diet and tonic treatment will accomplish this but external applications, as of liniments, cannot. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the most valuable tonic for the home treatment of neuralgia, a fact proved by the following case recently reported.

Mrs. Martha Decker, of No. 861 St. Paul avenue, Detroit, Wis., who has been cured of neuralgia by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, says:

"I suffered with neuralgia ever since I was a young girl until I took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills about five years ago. Each year the attacks became more obstinate to relieve and finally became so bad that I had to give up entirely. I suffered everything but death. I had severe cutting pains through my head and in my side. I could hardly get around for the pains pierced me like needles. My flesh would occasionally become swollen and I would then be in perfect misery. I could not sleep nor rest. My blood was poor and I lost in flesh. The doctor pronounced my trouble neuralgia. I took his medicine faithfully for a long time but my condition grew worse instead of better. I really thought I would never get any relief. I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, when I read in a paper how a case of neuralgia had been cured by their use. Soon after I began taking them I could see a change for the better. As they were the only thing that had relieved me I continued using them and was cured. I would not be without Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and always recommend them whenever I hear anyone complaining."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by Dr. Williams Medical Company, Schenectady, N. Y. They are guaranteed to be free from opiates or any harmful drug and cannot injure the most delicate system.

MEN PAST FIFTY IN DANGER.

Men past middle life have found comfort and relief in Foley's Kidney Remedy, especially for enlarged prostate gland, which is very common among elderly men. L. E. Morris, Dexter, Ky., writes: "Up to a year ago my father suffered from kidney and bladder trouble and several physicians pronounced it enlargement of the prostate gland and advised an operation. On account of his age we were afraid he could not stand it and I recommended Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the first bottle relieved him, and after taking the second bottle he was no longer troubled with this complaint." SLEEPING BEAUTY'S HAIR CUT.

Father Finds Severed Braids on Pillow and Believes It Trick.

Frankfort, Kas., June 23.—Miss Edna Chadwick, 14 years old, the beautiful daughter of F. A. Chadwick, of Vermillion, near here, is heartbroken over the loss of her two large braids of hair.

When her father called her Friday morning he asked where her hair was. She thought he was joking, but to her dismay both large braids were found upon the bed beside her, having been cut off apparently with a pair of shears.

No motive can be assigned for any one cutting her hair off since it was not taken away. Her father and brother had their hair cut Thursday and she had examined their heads, commenting upon their appearances, and seemingly interested in the matter.

The supposition is that while asleep she got the shears and cut the braids off. The rough ends indicate that it took several strokes to get them off. The cutting was close to the head.

Colds that hang on weaken the constitution and develop into consumption. Foley's Honey and Tar cures persistent coughs that refuse to yield to other treatment. Do not experiment with untried remedies as delay may result in your cold settling on your lungs. Drier Bros.

AN ORIENTAL SPECTACLE

To be Presented at the Far East Feature With the Buffalo Bill and Pawnee Bill Combined Exhibitions.

An exhibition of contrasts will be the Far East and Wild West performances given by Col. Cody and Major Little in this city. Both sides of the world will be shown in the same arena, representatives of many tribes and various types will be seen and there will be displays of customs and costumes, comprehensive and world-wide in diversity. An Oriental spectacle will be particularly bright in color and attractive in presentation; being a combination of open-air pantomime and pageantry. The scene will show the Pyramids and Sphinx, with a vista of the Sahara Desert. A band of Bedouin bandits are encamped while waiting for the ransom money to be sent for a party of tourists whom they have captured and hold as hostages. To have away the time the Sheikh of the tribe has ordered that an entertainment be given to the captives, and the arena is immediately made bright with the grandeur of an Oriental pageant. Troops of Arabs in native garb, elephants and camels, richly caparisoned horses and chariots and a long procession of many tribes in brilliant costumes assemble in the arena. Then begins an entertainment, strictly Oriental in all of its make-up. Hindoo fakirs, Arabian acrobats, Japanese jugglers and many men of brain and dexterity display their skill in various lines of amusement endeavor. As a special and particular feature of this portion of the Far East programme, Roan's Musical Elephants will be introduced in a specially both unique and entertaining. These marvelously trained mammoths play various musical instruments, ring bells, blow horns, pump organs, and dance the minuet, accompanied in all of their various feats by four beautifully gowned young ladies. The climax of the scene will be an illusion performed by a Hindoo fakir in which a young lady is made to apparently float upon air, above a cabinet, and to finally disappear altogether from view. The return of the troupe's friends with the money for their ransom marks the close of the scene, when the various tribes and people again assemble in procession and march away. This brief description in no manner gives a full idea of the Oriental spectacle, but simply outlines the scene and what is to be accomplished. The contrast to the Far East number will be found in an abundant variety of Wild West numbers, produced in person and personally directed by the original and only Col. Wm. F. Cody, "Buffalo Bill," who positively appears at every performance, no matter what the weather.

Eczema Lotion

An uncalled for feeling of delicacy keeps many people, especially women, from asking for a cure for Eczema. No one should be ashamed because he or she is afflicted with this most common of all skin diseases. Indeed, very few persons go through life without suffering at one time or another from Eczema.

Eczema may be caused either by external irritation or by disorders of the internal organs. It can be brought about by washing clothes or by washing dishes, or baking—by any work that subjects the hands to exposure to soapy water or intense heat. The longer it runs, the harder it is to cure.

Relief from the torturing itching is noticed soon after the first application of Nyal's Eczema Lotion, and the most stubborn cases will disappear if this sterling remedy is used persistently and faithfully.

Especially children suffer from several forms of Eczema or Salt Rheum. It's a mistake to think "milk crust" on the scalp or face of a baby should not be removed. Don't let the baby suffer untold torment from itching and soreness, for Nyal's Eczema Lotion relieves this condition—and it doesn't "drive in the rash," either.

This Lotion also soothes and heals redness and rawness caused by chafing. It relieves most skin diseases and eruptions, such as Hives, Nettle Rash, Ringworm, Tetter, Pimples, etc. Price, 50c.

I Cure Pelvic, Nervous and Chronic Diseases.

REDUCED FEES

In order to prove the advantages of my methods of treatment and the rapidity of the cures I make I will not only give to everyone who is anxious to obtain a cure and who will call at my office between now and July 1 a careful and thorough examination FREE OF CHARGE, but to further prove to the public that I DO CURE these CHRONIC and DEEP-SEATED diseases where the ordinary methods have always failed I will make a GREATLY REDUCED FEE in all cases I accept for a cure between now and JULY 1.

EVERY MAN who does less than he should do at his desk, in the shop or on the farm is weak in some way. I have found the man who cannot accomplish all he expects or hopes for is often the silent sufferer from some hidden disease that affects one or more of the important nerve centers of the body.

These neglected or unknown conditions are usually diseases of the pelvic organs which, reflexly act on the organs of digestion, of elimination and the nervous system, which in turn has its influence on the brain. I have made a special study of the nervous system and have perfected methods that will CURE Pelvic Diseases.

Hundreds of people in and about Fort Wayne who have taken advantage of my treatment are now cured and satisfied and are enjoying the blessings of health.

Many of these I have cured after they had sought relief at the famous health resorts and spent much hard-earned cash in their efforts to get well.

The warm summer months are here, the time of the year when the hardest work is to be done.

Are you physically able to do your part and keep your place in the procession, or is there some disease which is slowly, but surely, undermining your vitality and unfitting you for performing your part of the duties which every man owes to his country, to his neighbors, to his family, his loved ones and to himself?

Do you think you are doing your duty by neglecting an opportunity to rid yourself of the shackles of disease?

I have spent years in the study and treatment of Pelvic, Nervous and Chronic Diseases and have perfected methods which will not only positively and permanently cure these chronic and deep-seated diseases, but will restore to a normal and healthy condition the broken-down and devitalized organs.

Did You Ever Stop to Consider What It Costs You Not to Enjoy Good Health?

Think it over and consider if you can afford, as a matter of business, to neglect yourself and risk FAILURE because you are handicapped by disease.

Many a man has been forced to abandon a successful career because of some PELVIC OR CHRONIC disease, which had insidiously wrecked his nervous system and unfitted him for performing the duties which he otherwise would have been able to perform.

It makes no difference how long you have been afflicted, if I accept your case I will positively cure you.

The wonderful growth of my business is the result of CLEAN BUSINESS METHODS and CLEAN ADVERTISING. I have always made it a point never to put into my advertising anything that might in any way be deemed vulgar or offensive to the most critical, and I have at all times kept my business as clean as my advertising. This is somewhat of an innovation, and to some doctors is an impossibility, as the vulgarity of their advertising but reflects the filth in their minds, and an unclean mind is a positive evidence of an unclean business.

I have made it an invariable rule to accept no cases for treatment that I cannot cure. While this, of course, compels me to refuse to treat quite a good many cases which come to me, it has established a confidence in the public that when I accept a case for treatment I will accomplish a cure. I have, beyond a question, the best business of my kind in the state, and the hundreds of satisfied patients whom I have cured are ample evidence of my ability to successfully treat these chronic and deep-seated diseases in which the ordinary methods have failed. I HAVE NO TIME TO WASTE ON INCURABLE DISEASES.

In this day of active competition to attain that measure of SUCCESS for which we were intended it is absolutely necessary that all the faculties should be unimpaired.

I Repeat, No Man Can Afford to Run the Risk of Failure Because of Being Handicapped by Disease.

OTHERS TREAT, BUT I CURE

BLOOD POISON—I use only the most advanced methods in the treatment of Blood Poison and kindred diseases.

ECZEMA and other skin diseases quickly cured.

NERVOUS BREAKDOWN and nearly all nervous diseases are the direct result of chronic or imperfectly treated PELVIC DISEASES such as VARICOCELE, PILES, FISTULA, STRICTURE, etc. I not only remove the cause but my many years of experience in the treatment of nervous and pelvic diseases enable me by my special methods to revitalize the entire nervous system and to restore to perfect health nearly all sufferers from NERVOUS BREAKDOWN AND VITAL WEAKNESS.

EXAMINATION—My facilities for examination are unexcelled. I learn the exact condition of the rectum, the bladder and every organ of the genito-urinary system. This in itself is of the highest importance, inasmuch as a broken down nervous system and many more of the troubles of the STOMACH, LIVER, KIDNEYS, etc., are reflex, and are the direct results of some PELVIC LESION OR DISEASE.

PROSTATIC ENLARGEMENT—This may result from a number of causes. The constant jarring and vibration of trains and trolley cars are a very potent cause. Bicycle riding and the use of riding implements on the farm are factors in producing this disease. In fact the causes are so many and varied that fully 75 per cent of all adults are afflicted to a greater or lesser extent by this disease. The disease is so little understood, and as one of the symptoms is a pain in the back, it is usually called kidney trouble and treated with local applications or sedatives which do no possible good whatever. I reduce the enlargement, and have been able to cure about 90 per cent of all cases.

VARICOCELE—I cure Varicocele in a few days' or weeks' time without the use of the knife.

STRICTURE—I readily remove stricture by my solvent method without the use of instruments.

RUPTURE, PILES, FISTULA, ETC., cured without detention from business and without the use of the knife.

Consultation and all Communications Strictly Confidential. Office Hours—9-12, 1-5. Evenings, 7-8. Sundays, 9-1 only. Write or call on

NICKEL PLATE YARD MASTER.

Samuel Deahl to Take Charge on July 1.

It is not officially announced, but from a reliable source The Sentinel learns that Samuel Deahl has been selected as the successor of Jay S. Vervallin, the Nickel Plate yardmaster, and that the change will take place next Thursday. The Sentinel stated several days ago that Mr. Vervallin would retire and that his resignation was in the hands of the officials. He will take a rest and then probably resume a position in the train service, though it is understood that the matter has not been fully decided. Mr. Vervallin has been with the Nickel Plate since 1894, first as brakeman, then conductor and for two or three years yardmaster at this place. Before coming to the Nickel Plate he was with the Michigan Central six years, the latter part of that term in the capacity of yardmaster at Kalamazoo. Mr. Deahl began work in the capacity of brakeman on the Nickel Plate during the world's fair at Chicago, in 1893. He has remained steadily with the company since and for the past ten years has been a freight and extra passenger conductor. He is well known among the Nickel Plate men and quite popular with them. His brother, Fred T. Deahl, was trainmaster of this division and later of the eastern division, where he was the victim of an accident two or three years ago.

A BILL TO CHANGE FEDERAL COURT SYSTEM

Crumpacker's Measure Will Include Fort Wayne in Indiana Cities.

Washington, June 29.—Promptly with the convening of congress in regular session next winter there will be a re-opening of the perennial controversy over the reorganization of the federal court system in Indiana. In fact, there is a good deal of quiet maneuvering going on now with a view to the capture of this, that or the other strategic outpost.

Early in the regular session, probably on the opening day, Representative Crumpacker, who is the original blow-in-the-bottle Indiana Federal court reorganizer, will introduce a federal court bill.

His bill will be a departure from the one which was before the house at the last session of congress and which provoked several hot skirmishes. That bill provided for regular sittings of court at Fort Wayne, South Bend, Hammond, Terre Haute, Evansville and New Albany, as well as at Indianapolis. It divided the state into seven judicial subdivisions and stipulated that cases should be tried at the seat of justice of the subdivision in which they arise.

Judge Crumpacker's new bill will omit Terre Haute and South Bend as places of holding court and will create five judicial subdivisions, instead of seven. Judge Crumpacker always was opposed to the holding of federal court at South Bend and Terre Haute, and it was over his protest that the federal court bill was modified in the last congress to include those cities. The modification was made in order to placate Elias S. Holliday, then representative from the Fifth district, and the late Representative Brick, who represented the South Bend district.

May Not Get Support.

There is much speculation as to the probable lineup of the new Indiana delegation on Crumpacker's bill. One of the great obstacles in the way of federal court legislation in the last congress was the division among the republican members from Indiana. Representatives Overstreet and Landis fought the bill with unremitting energy. They have retired from congress and the republican membership from Indiana has dwindled down to two—Representatives Crumpacker and Barnard.

Mr. Barnard has not indicated his position on federal court legislation, but it is believed he will support Crumpacker, which would give the bill the impetus of a solid republican delegation from Indiana. If the republican membership from Indiana had been solid for the legislation in the last congress it probably would have gone through, but whether the same weight would attach to an agreement of the Indiana republican membership when such membership consists of only two representatives is doubtful.

In the last congress the federal court reorganizers had the advantage of being represented by one of their members on the judiciary committee of the house. This enabled them to get a favorable report on the reorganization plan. The retirement of John H. Foster, of the First district left Indiana without a place on that committee. Representative Barnard is being mentioned as a possible successor of Judge Foster on the judiciary committee, and it would surprise no one in touch with the situation if he should be selected.

Democrats Will Object.

There will be strong opposition to the new Crumpacker bill from some

Take Off the Fat Where It Shows

Most women suffer much humiliation because of great quantities of fat, so located that, no matter how they dress, everybody sees that they are abnormal. This is the day of the slender figure, and fat women are simply not tolerated either about her. They do not mean to be unkind or to seem unmanly, but it is natural for a man to dislike fat on a woman. Where fat shows the most there is where it must be removed, and as quickly as possible. The hot weather dress seems to be made for the fat woman's misery and the slender woman's delight. They expose all the charms of woman and her thighs as well. Excessive diet will not remove fat. This has been proved. The famous Marmola prescription which has met with such phenomenal success and has so many of our society women as its sponsors, is now being sold in tablet form to meet the demand of the public for this style of treatment. These little tablets go into your system just like food. They stop the stomach and digestive apparatus from producing fat and reduce the fat upon the body at the rate of from 12 to 15 ounces a day. They are harmless and can be carried in your purse and taken even after you have indulged in a hearty meal away from home. They are sold at all drug stores at 15 cents a box, or if you prefer you may write the Marmola Company, Dept. 346, Detroit, Mich.

Judge L. H. Wrigley, in circuit court at Columbia City Monday, decided the test case of James Grant, a saloon-keeper, adversely to the petitioner. Grant has a saloon license issued in October and contends that the county option law did not go into effect until the proclamation by Governor Hanly in November, so that he ought to be allowed to continue in business until the expiration in November. The court held that the law dates from its passage on September 28, and Grant, who was arrested June 21 for selling liquor to one John Doe, was fined $50. He will appeal the case and says he will continue selling liquor until his license expires on October 6.

CLEAR THE COMPLEXION OVERNIGHT

Pimples, Rash, Eruptions, Etc., Quickly Eradicated by New Skin Remedy.

Since its discovery one year ago, poslam, the new skin remedy, has, in its extraordinary accomplishments, exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the eminent specialist who gave it to the world. It has cured thousands of cases of eczema and eradicated facial and other disfigurements of years' standing. The terrible itching attending eczema is stopped with the first application, giving proof of its curative properties at the very outset.

In less serious skin affections, such as pimples, rash, herpes, blackheads, acne, barber's itch, etc., results show after an overnight application, only a small quantity being required to effect a cure. Those who use poslam for these minor skin troubles can now avail themselves of the special 50-cent package, recently adopted to meet such needs. Both the 50-cent package and the regular $2 jar may now be obtained in Fort Wayne at Meyer Bros. Co., and other leading drug stores.

Samples for experimental purposes may be had free of charge by writing direct to the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York city.

THE MARKETS

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago Market.—Ideal weather for harvesting insured a fresh bid on the wheat market on the board of trade today, which resulted in material declines following advances of 1/2 to 1/4 at the opening. The first sale at the start was at an unexpected advance at Liverpool based on unfavorable weather conditions in France, Germany and Hungary. The wheat market became strong in the last half of the day, owing to a liberal increase in the world's visible supply and a vague report of black rust in the wheat fields of Minnesota, July advancing 1/2 to 1/4. The close was strong, with July up 1/2 at $1.16 1/2.

The weather map showed clear weather generally throughout the interior states in this country and the official prediction was for a continuance of like conditions. Prospects of greatly increased receipts of wheat also promoted considerable selling. The greatest selling pressure was in the July delivery and its option declined nearly 1 cent early in the day. The opening on July was at $1.15 1/2 to $1.15 3/4. After selling at $1.15 1/2 to $1.15 3/4, the price dropped to $1.15 1/4.

The corn market rallied with wheat and held firm the final hour. The close was only a few cents higher than the opening. Declines of more than 1/2 cent early trading in the corn pit. July opened a shade higher to 1/4 lower at 70 1/2 to 70 3/4, 70 1/2 to 70 3/4 and then declined to 69 1/2.

Oats were weak on liberal realizing sales, based on the favorable weather or the growing crop. Prices at the start were 1/2 to 1/4 lower than the opening, at 59 1/2 to 59 3/4. After touching 59 1/2, the price dropped back to 59 1/4.

Provisions were quiet and easy. A 10c decline in live hogs was a bearish factor, prices at the opening were 2 1/2 higher to 1/2 lower.

SCHISLER MAKES ESCAPE.

Prisoner Makes Successful Break and Gains His Liberty.

Charles or Clinton Schisler, probably better known by the latter name, escaped from a guard at the county jail Monday afternoon and made his escape, leaving the city on an east-bound Nickel Plate freight train. He had six more days to serve on a fine and jail sentence inflicted for stealing a package of fine leather which he offered for sale to a local dealer.

The prisoner was taken, with three others, to paint some iron pipe in the county storage yard, near the jail, and managed to get away. The guard could not give pursuit on account of the other three prisoners. Schisler feared another warrant that was awaiting him for beating a board bill and the talk of his connection with some burglaries in which a fireman was shot and injured probably induced him to make a break for liberty. Sheriff Reichelderfer notified the police and the officers in the surrounding counties.

TRIMMED CORNS IN PUBLIC.

Man Works on Troublesome Feet in Court House Corridors.

A pretty well dressed fellow, who looked like he ought to have known better, peeled off his shoes and stockings on one of the benches at the north door of the court house this morning and was busily paring away at his corns when Patrolman Spillner landed on him.

"What the—what the dickens do you think this is, a bath house?" asked the officer. "Go down by the river if you want to do anything like that."

The fellow seemed to think that he had done nothing unconventional and was apparently hurt at the language of the patrolman.
